May 9, 2006 – Vancouver, BC – Quizam Media Corporation (“Quizam” or “the Company”) is pleased to announce that it has signed an agreement with King David High School to compliment its academic program using Quizam study software.

King David High School (KDHS) is a traditional, co-educational, community day school that integrates Judaic studies with a rigorous academic program. It was founded on the conviction that a Jewish high school education is crucial for developing intellectual and spiritual curiosity, and for promoting a positive Jewish identity. King David is committed to enabling students to develop their individual potential and to acquire the knowledge, skills and attitudes needed to cultivate a strong understanding of and love for the richness of their Jewish heritage.

KDHS Special Education teacher, Damon Forester tested QUIZAM and comments, “Cool! Can it edit questions and distractions? Yes I can!”

Mr. Rossi, president of Quizam, comments, “ We are increasingly earning popularity among private and public schools across the globe because Quizam provides ready-to-use content, features and learning tools that allow instructors to customize content to meet their rigorous academic standards.”
