June 6th, 2006 – London, UK – QUIZAM Media Corporation (“Quizam” or “the Company”) is pleased to report Stephen Alexander has joined the Quizam Board of Directors.

Mr. Alexander, who resides in London England, became qualified as a Solicitor in 1975. His early years of practice were centered on international corporate work.

In 1987, Mr. Alexander joined Gamlestaden plc, a Swedish finance company, as a Director. His practice then turned to corporate finance, loans and investments. During his tenure at Gamlestaden plc, he was appointed to the Board of numerous public companies and even became Chairman of three of them.

In 1992, Mr. Alexander developed a European distribution network for a US company that manufactured and sold High Tech Textiles.

In 1997, Mr. Alexander returned to his first love, the law. He founded Class Law in 1998 which has been at the forefront of protecting shareholder’s rights in public companies ever since.

In 2005, and in addition to his work at Class Law, Mr. Alexander joined Leelanes Solicitors, an international practice, as a consultant. He now undertakes corporate finance work for multinational companies raising capital and occasionally acts in an executive capacity.

Born in London in 1952, Mr. Alexander was educated at Kilburn Grammar School. He attended the College of Law in London where he undertook his legal education.

Commenting on his appointment Mr. Alexander stated, “From the first moment I used Quizam its potential was obvious. I am excited to be involved.”
