October 5th, 2006 – Vancouver, BC – Quizam Media Corporation (“Quizam” or “the Company”) is pleased to announce Eric Hamber will be the first school to pilot the Linux Quizam 2.0 version in the computer lab and the PC version for the Special Education program.

Eric Hamber began operations in 1962, and is the youngest secondary school in the Vancouver School Board District 39 with a population of approximately 1,800 student. The school’s mandate reinforces “students to demonstrate intellectual, social, aesthetic and physical excellence in a setting that reflects diversity, fosters cooperation, mutual respect, individual worth, that prepares students to become responsible members of society”.

Through the years, Eric Hamber Secondary has built an enviable reputation for academic excellence in challenging fields such as Mathematics, English, Science and History. The school’s curriculum reflects the diversity of the community it serves, offering a wide variety of Ministry of Education mandated courses, as well, as a number of locally developed courses such as, Multi-Media, Chef on the Run., Electronic Design and Publishing, Sociology of Fashion, and Computer Technology.

Robert Arkiletian, technology teacher expressed, “We are glad that Quizam has recognized the Linux education market”.

Russ Rossi, president of Quizam, says,” There’s a vastly growing market for Linux in Europe and Third World countries because of how cost effective it is. We are positioning Quizam so that Linux is readily available for schools operating with multi-platforms.”
