October 16, 2006 – Vancouver, BC – Quizam Media Corporation (“Quizam” or “the Company”) is pleased to announce Prince Charles Secondary School has signed a deal with Quizam whereby the students will use the software for review and study support.

Prince Charles Secondary is a public high school in Creston; part of School District 8 Kootenay Lake; located in the southeastern region of British Columbia. Kootenay Lake School District is a rural district with many unique communities spread over a large geographic area. ‘Homelinks’ offers a supported Home Learning Program to students in Creston. Prince Charles Secondary has recently installed a new computer network and purchased a new set of computers for the Technology classes. The school offers a variety of alternative learning programs and has a comprehensive academic curriculum to meet the diverse needs of the students. School enrolment is 668.

Sharen Popoff, Principal of Prince Charles Secondary schools, comments, “I see Quizam providing students review and study support. I see the process as challenging but fun to hook learners.”

Russ Rossi, president of Quizam states, “It’s our goal to reach rural communities and to provide students with a study-aid tool that’s challenging and engaging. Once a student uses Quizam they’ll get hooked on scoring higher on tests with half the effort!”

Creston is a town of approximately 5,000 people just a few kilometers north of the Porthill, Idaho border crossing into the United States and about a three-hour drive north from Spokane, Washington.
