October 17, 2006 – Vancouver, BC – Quizam Media Corporation (“Quizam” or “the Company”) is pleased to announce L.V. Rogers Secondary School has signed deal to use Quizam as part of the District’s strategy to improve achievement for all students.

Kootenay Lake School District is located in the beautiful Selkirk Mountains of British Columbia. The district has a population of about 40 thousand residents and this population is made up mostly of professionals, entrepreneurs, and retirees. The district stretches along the shores of Kootenay Lake with the headquarters of the district being in Nelson, the home of L.V. Rogers Secondary School.

L.V. Rogers Secondary School celebrates 50 years of excellence, from humble beginnings of twenty students to now a student enrolment of 673. L.V. Roger’s motto is Palnam qui meruit ferat, translated into English means "Let the reward go to the one who deserves it." With a strong history of competitive sports the school prides itself for its continuous growth and ability to change and meet the community’s educational needs.

The District’s mission is: “We focus on excellence for ALL learners in a nurturing environment”. As a result, students may choose from many elective courses in a variety of subjects. Elective courses include sewing and fashion design, cooking and culinary arts, auto mechanics, drama, painting, pottery, stage craft, television broadcasting, physical education, dance, band, choir, foreign languages, jewellery making, wood working, metal work, electric car building and more.

Irene Dual, Director of New Business, states: “L.V. Rogers is an example of a rural school that is successfully integrating innovative methods of learning and as a result student’s achievement is improving”.
